WHO ARE PROCORRE?

Procorre is a next generation management consultancy. We work closely with global businesses to deploy thousands of our highly skilled and experienced consultants, to deliver projects across a wide range of industries, around the world.

With Procorre you get more than just a team of trainees with one leader, you get a workforce of highly skilled specialists with a history of successes. As the experts in expert people; you will only receive the best service, delivery and experience.

We began in Switzerland when a number of professional services consultancies joined together after recognising that they could provide higher value projects by combining their skills base and expertise. We have offices in London, Geneva, Singapore and Dublin.

PROJECT SERVICES

We provide our clients with exclusive Subject Matter Experts, the removal of administration burdens and provide highly efficient project management across a range of industries. From project planning and talent sourcing, to the mobilisation of workforces - we ensure businesses deliver their objectives on time and on budget.

Our global clients have benefited from the extensive range of services we offer by partnering with Procorre. These include:

- Feasibility Studies
- Strategic Project Planning
- Streamlining logistic functions
- Designing project plans
- Risk Management
- Expansion Guidance

What makes Procorre stand out amongst other consultancy firms is that we attract and retain our consultants, through our comprehensive benefits package and rigorous selection procedures. This means that although we attract a significant amount of applicants, we identify, place and manage only the best candidates, either as an individual or entire workforce for large or small scale projects.

Procorre has access to thousands of specialist consultants, who are all partners in our company. Our consultants and highly skilled internal teams, work together to guarantee all client projects are handled as if they are our own.

OUR SUBJECT MATTER EXPERTS

A Subject Matter Expert is a consultant with an extensive understanding of a particular process, function, technology, machine, material or type of equipment. They are industry specialists with an insight and knowledge base which may not be provided by other consultants. They seek opportunities and gaps in the market in order to help clients be ahead of their competitors and give them the advantage within their market.

Subject Matter Experts are utilised by our clients to leverage their unique expertise to solve specific problems or deliver their projects to an exemplary level.

CHARACTERISTICS OF A SUBJECT MATTER EXPERT:

- Extensive knowledge and experience
- Relevant skill sets and qualifications
- Considerable professional network with like-minded consultants

Our experts are at the disposal of our clients as part of our unique Outsourcing service, for both short and medium term durations.

GLOBAL MOBILITY CAPABILITIES

Global employers have a legal requirement to comply with all local immigration, tax and social security legalisation in any areas in which they operate. Our vast experience of mobilising consultants internationally, across diverse political landscapes means we are ideally placed to advise our clients of the best ways to proceed with their projects.

We assist clients who are seeking to enter new markets, helping them identify and evaluate new opportunities. We provide support developing a full market entry strategy and ensuring they satisfy all legal and regulatory requirements for new countries and industries.
